In the Matter of the Revocation of the License to Conduct Gambling Activities of:	) No. CR 2010-01198
Douglas Stuckert	)
Tacoma, Washington,	) NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE ) CHARGES AND OPPORTUNITY
Licensee.	) FOR A HEARING

The Washington State Gambling Commission issued Douglas Stuckert license number 68-10513, authorizing Card Room Employee activity, formerly at the Palace Casino in Lakewood.

This license expires on August 11, 2011, and was issued subject to the licensee's compliance with state gambling laws and regulations.

Jurisdiction of this proceeding is based on 9.46 RCW, Gambling, Chapter 34.05 RCW, the Administrative Procedure Act, and WAC Title 230.

II.

Rick Day, Director of the Washington State Gambling Commission, charges the licensee with the following violations of the Washington State Gambling Act, 9.46 RCW, and WAC Title 230:

- 1) On October 2, 2010, staff at the Palace Casino failed to give a customer, who regularly plays poker at the Palace Casino, $160 when he was cashing out. Staff placed an envelope with $160 and the customer's name on it under the cash drawer in the poker podium. This was done so that the next time the customer came into the Palace Casino, staff could give him the $160.
- 2) On October 7, 2010, the customer returned to the Palace Casino and the Poker Manager let him know that he was owed $160. The Poker Manger went to the poker podium to get the envelope under the cash drawer and discovered that it was missing.<sup>2</sup>
- 3) The Surveillance Director reviewed surveillance video of the poker podium and determined that on October 5, 2010, Douglas Stuckert took the envelope under the cash drawer and then shortly thereafter, he took at least one $10 bill from the poker cash drawer.

- 4) On October 14, 2010, the licensee admitted to a Commission Special Agent that on October 5, 2010, while working as the poker supervisor, he took the envelope containing $160 in cash that was under the cash drawer in the poker podium. Also on that same day, he took a $10 overage<sup>3</sup> from the poker cash drawer.
- 5) The licensee pursued economic gain while working as a poker supervisor and engaged in an act, practice or course of operation that operated as a fraud, in violation of RCW 9.46.190.
- 6) The licensee's actions create probable cause to believe that his participation in gambling activities would be detrimental to the proper operation of gambling, and he poses a threat to the effective regulation of gambling, or creates or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gambling activities. Therefore, the licensee has failed to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, that he is qualified to hold a gambling license, in violation of RCW 9.46.153.
- 7) Therefore, grounds exist to revoke Douglas Stuckert's license under RCW 9.46.075(1), (8), and (10), and WAC 230-03-085(1) and (8).

RCW 9.46.075 Denial, suspension, or revocation of license, application, or permit The Commission may deny an application, or suspend or revoke any license or permit issued by it, for any reason or reasons, it deems to be in the public interest. These reasons shall include, but not be limited to, cases wherein the applicant or licensee, or any person with any interest therein. The following subsection(s) apply:

- (1) Has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by chapter 9.46 RCW and any amendments thereto, or any rules adopted by the Commission pursuant thereto, or when a violation of any provision of chapter 9.46 RCW, or any Commission rule, has occurred upon any premises occupied or operated by any such person or over which he or she has substantial control.

- (10) Has pursued or is pursuing economic gain in an occupational manner or context which is in violation of the criminal or civil public policy of this state if such pursuit creates probable cause to believe that the participation of such person in gambling or related activities would be inimical to the proper operation of an authorized gambling or related activity in this state. For the purposes of this section, occupational manner or context shall be defined as the systematic planning, administration, management or execution of an activity for financial gain.

WAC 230-03-085 Denying, suspending, or revoking an application, license or permit The following subsection(s) apply:

We may deny, suspend, or revoke any application, license or permit, when the applicant, licensee, or anyone holding a substantial interest in the applicant's or licensee's business or organization:

- (1) Commits any act that constitutes grounds for denying, suspending, or revoking licenses or permits under RCW 9.46.075.
- (8) Poses a threat to the effective regulation of gambling, or creates or increases the likelihood of unfair or illegal practices, methods, and activities in the conduct of gambling activities, as demonstrated by: (a) Prior activities; or (b) Criminal record; or (c) Reputation; or (d) Habits; or (e) Associations.
